Work Environments > Industrial Label Printer 219

Industrial Label Printer 219

Features

- Thermal transfer
- Industrial cutter
- Protective bumper
- Battery life indication
- Easy loaded cassette system
- Automatic power off after 2 minutes
- Specific label printing modes:
  - wrap-around labels
  - flag labels
  - terminal block labels
  - patchpanel labels
  - component labels (with fixed length)
  - module marking labels
- 4 line printing & serialization
- Symbol library : include commonly used electrical and datacom symbols
- 6 types of barcodes
- 4 preference keys (save your personal settings)
- 8 separate memory locations
- PC connection: import data (ASCII) and graphics onto a memory card

This portable thermal transfer printer is the perfect tool for all your electrical and datacommunication applications, with specific features for easy wire and cable marking, component , outlet or patchpanel identification. It will make your job faster, easier and will give added value to your work.

The ILP 219 stands for:

Quality: High quality thermal transfer printing with a new range of industrial labels

Professional: Label your cables, wires, patchpanels, installation material with great precision by using the dedicated labelmodes within the printer

Powerful and versatile: A lot of features to print anytime of label you need making your job on-site fast and easy. The PC connectivity gives you the opportunity to prepare your labeling in advance

Standard product offering:

The ILP 219 kit contains:

- Carrying Case
- Printer & protective bumper
- PC connection Cable
- Memory Card
- 2 tapes
- AC adapter
- Manual (GB-G-F-E-I-NL-PL-PT)
- Card Loader Software (GB-G-F-E-I-NL-PL-PT)
- Quick Start Card (GB-G-F-E-I-NL-PL-PT)

Accessories:

Rechargeable Battery Pack

64 K Memory Card