Order begins with the details

The 150 series storage cabinet system has been planned, designed and made to create order – right down to the last detail.

These all-important details set their stamp on the whole system – which, like all raaco products, can be adapted to suit your individual needs and requirements.

The 150 series is designed to store small items – up to 135 mm long.

The storage cabinet system is made of enamelled steel and is available in three sizes, with five different drawer combinations. The drawers are made of durable plastic and are available in five different sizes.

The basic concept is simple – but the possibilities are endless. A wealth of practical design features ensures tip-top efficiency in every application: Stands and swivel bases with adjustable legs, labels protected with special grime-resistant plastic, wide drawer handles, stop rims, drawers that can be divided into up to 16 smaller compartments using partitions ...

The 150 series storage cabinet system is very suitable for wall mounting – or it can become mobile: Accessories include rubber castors with brakes, and handles that can easily be mounted on the stands.

The smallest models in the range can also be placed in a lockable installation case, which comes complete with a plastic tool tray: A fast, practical, mini-workshop.
