

IDC Hand Tool

The professional terminal hand tool is designed to be used with the BT 2A type connector. Manufactured from toughened plastic and fitted with a hardened steel blade. This tool is ideal for telephone engineers as it terminates and trims the wire to the correct length in one push of the impact tool. The handle houses wire hooks and extractors. Supplied with moulded, plastic belt loop holder.

235595

Order Code	Price Each
394-9280	