

Rectangular bar magnets

Rectangular bar magnets are widely used in a variety of applications. They are used in magnetic damping applications and used in the manufacture of weighing scales.

524120

Order code	Model	Length (mm)	Width (mm)	Height (mm)	Price per pair
155-3635	E844	20	10	5	— —

Ferrite magnets

A range of shallow, limpet type, gripping magnets using ferrite magnet material set in mild steel shells. Magnetic field depths are in-between those of cast alloy pot magnets and magnets. Ideal for use as 'bases' to machine tool accessories and industrial light fittings, where temperatures do not exceed a maximum of 80° C.