

Many thanks for clicking on this document, please let us introduce the Eaton PowerXL™ DE1 Variable Speed Starter

The new Eaton PowerXL™ DE1 Variable speed starter

So simple:

The new Eaton PowerXL DE1 drives deliver a host of benefits to the end user. Development with ease of use and quick and efficient installation, DE1 is a straight from box motor starter.

Key benefits:

- Variable speed setting .
- Trip-free design.
- Out-of-the-box setup.
- No specialist drive knowledge required.
- Full integration in Smart Wire-DT and PowerXL™ software.
- Developed For use in harsh environments, -10 ° C to 60 ° C.
- International standards CE, UL, cUL and cTick.

Straight from box installation

Commissioning:

Pre-wired as a motor starter for out of the box commissioning, no specialist drive knowledge required. Keeps installation errors to a minimum and saves cost.

Detachable parameter module for more precise installations.

Communication:

Compatible with the innovative Smart Wire-DT communication system, for better efficiency and integration with existing products.

Smart Wire-DT

Know more about Eaton DE1

RS and Eaton in Partnership

RS and Eaton deliver quality products to A&C customers worldwide.

RS and Eaton have been supporting A&C customers and their applications for many years. The combination of a first class logistics and supply chain operation with a world renowned product range benefits customers greatly.

With stock on hand and a delivery service second to none, whether it's breakdown or a new build, RS can ensure you receive Eaton products quickly and efficiently, wherever you are.

The RS and Eaton partnership continues to develop quicker routes to market, allowing early access to new and innovative product ranges.

Whether it's machine and panel building or maintenance and replacement, be sure that the RS Eaton partnership is working for you.

Know more about Eaton DE1